

1. Spectacle Lake Lodge

The lodge, situated on the edge of Algonquin Park, offers Maple Syrup Culinary Experiences— maple cooking class and lakeside dining. Maple syrup menus, breakfast, lunch and dinner. Year round lakefront accommodation, 55 km of recreational trails a breath-taking nature's paradise. www.spectaclelodelodge.com

2. Wilno Tavern Restaurant

The Wilno Tavern Restaurant is a Trip Advisor Certificate of Excellence recipient. The Wilno boasts over a 100 year history of serving local farmers, loggers, travellers and friends. Across the road from the tavern, visit the award-winning Wilno Heritage Park and Museum, open during the summer months. www.wilnotavern.com

3. The Deakins

Your visit to the Deakins begins with an interpretive tasting of different grades of delicious maple syrup, home baking and a welcome beverage. After a restful night, help yourself to a cold buffet and hot entrée—the Deakins' signature maple breakfast. Spend a half day walking in the footsteps of a maple syrup farmer starting with an orientation tour and Don's stories full of local colour and history. Conclude your visit with a make-your-own maple syrup workshop. www.deakinbandb.com

4. Mapleside Sugar Bush

At Mapleside the Bonenbergs combine traditional methods with the newest production technology to ensure high quality and purity in their maple products. The Sugar Bush is FSC certified, a designation attesting to the Bonenbergs' commitment to promoting responsible maple forest management. Tour the modern facilities, taste award-winning syrup and share in the future by participating in a ceremonial tree planting. www.mapleside.ca

5. Shaw Woods

Enjoy a leisurely box lunch in a picnic setting. Wander into this rare and ancient forest and experience it as the first European settlers did in the mid 1800s where you will be greeted by high branched, large diameter trees, a multi-layered canopy and the indisputable absence of man's influence. Marvel at the oldest sugar maple trees in Canada. A truly unique forest bathing experience! www.shawwoods.ca

6. Whitewater Brewing Company

A tour, a tasting and dinner. A trip to the Whitewater Brewing Company in Cobden affords visitors the opportunity to learn about the brewing process and taste some quality brews and food—both with a maple twist. The owners' enterprise is inspired by friendship, a sense of adventure and a love for the local and surrounding community. www.whitewaterbeer.ca
